

How to Use this Guide

Considerations:

- After each webisode, we recommend using certain worksheets to review what happens
- Subsequent worksheets support extending the topic and for watching the webisode twice
- With the format recommended, teachers can facilitate one webisode topic for two weeks
- Guide is appropriate for Zoom instruction, distance learning as well as in-class lessons
- Suggested worksheets for specific webisodes can be used again to chart class progress

Pacing Guide

For this grade level, we recommend spending 2 weeks on each webisode to support full understanding of each concept and opportunities for students to practice social emotional skills.
